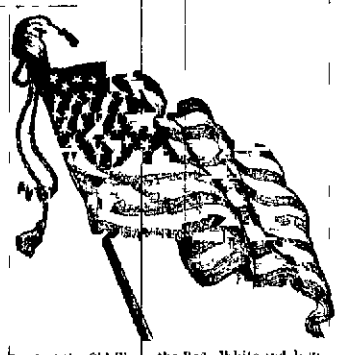
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue
With the stars of a Union all bright and true
Arise and defend it! your all at the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 29 1862

"Our own Cass"

In one of Judge Waite's tirades he said—"Our own Cass didn't think it beneath him to compromise" The Judge manifestly knows little of Cass, if he does he misrepresents him. "Our own Cass" is now a very aged man; but the fire of patriotism glows as brightly in his bosom as ever. Cass went out of Buchanan's Cabinet because he would not reinforce Sumter. In a speech at Detroit not long since, he said to his old friends—

"There is but one path for every true man to travel, and that is broad and plain It will conduct us, not indeed without trials and sufferings, to peace and the restoration of the Union. He who is not for his country, is against her. There is no neutral position to be occupied. It is the duty of all zealously to support the Government in its efforts to bring this unhappy, evil war to a speedy and satisfactory conclusion."

Such is "our own Cass" Too old to shoulder his musket, he opened his purse liberally for the support of government Hear it, ye who desire to compromise with traitors and vote again for John C Breckinridge and perhaps Jeff Davis. The old hero of the war of 1812, speaks to you He thunders in your ears—"He who is not for his country is against her. There is no neutral position to be occupied." To sympathize with treason, is to be a traitor.

Another Falsehood Throttled

The following card from Mr B F Harding, published in the Statesman, places Judge Page in an unenviable position for truth and veracity. The Judge should be a little more cautious when he undertakes to tell stories upon the public stump, as he is liable to get picked up sooner than he expected The story might have answered his purpose had it been told on the eve of the election, but he told it a little too soon.

SALEM, May 23d, 1862.

ED. STATESMAN—I have just learned that Hon. W. W. Page, in a public speech lately made at Dalles, said in substance that, the administrators of the estate of Col Baker had forwarded to Mr. Rector, and Mr Rector had placed in my hands for collection, a note against Hon. Jno. R. McBride, given about the time of the Senatorial election It is but just that I should say that I have no knowledge whatever of any note to which Mr McBride is, or ever was, a party The whole charge is false; and he who has or may utter that part of it relating to myself, is no less than than a malicious liar. B F HARDING

MARRIED AGAINST THEIR WILL.—The Washington Standard of the 24th inst., announces the marriage, in Olympia, of the famous Dr. C. H. DeWolf to Mrs. Eliza Ann Hurd. The marriage was performed under somewhat adverse circumstances, by H M McGill, acting as Justice of the Peace It seems that the parties had constructed a conjugal alliance under their own peculiar style which was not recognized by the laws of the Territory, and had been arraigned before the Justice on a charge of "open and notorious fornication," but his Hon not wishing to step in between the two and keep them long er apart, very adroitly slipped the noose over their necks and tied the knot before they were apprised of his design,—thus settling the matter and dismissed the case It is said the Doctor was much enraged when he came to realize his position, but was finally pacified, doubtless from the reflection that a divorce could be easily obtained by application to the next Legislature of that Territory

REGISTRY.—We see it stated in a late number of the Colonist, that Mr Allen Francis, American Consul at Victoria, has opened books of Registry, in which the names of all American miners going to Cariboo and other places in British Columbia, their age, place of residence, and destination are regularly registered, thus affording an opportunity to friends of ascertaining where their relatives or friends may probably be found

ELECTION IN SAN FRANCISCO—The telegraphic dispatches to the Union of the 22d, state that the city election of San Francisco, resulted in favor of the whole People's Ticket by an average majority of 661 Cowles' majority is 855. The whole vote in the city was 11,382.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune states that large dealers, who are pleading on behalf of the whiskey interest with the Committee of Ways and Means make the almost incredible assertion that the total products of all the distilleries in the United States is not less than 600,000,000 gallons If so, a tax of ten per cent will net a very pretty sum for the Treasury.—Probably a still larger tax will be imposed

DEER LODGE ROCK VALLEY.—Late arrivals from Deer Lodge Rock Valley say that the miners on Deer Lodge river were about commencing work on their claims, with a prospect of making ten dollars per day Gold had been found over an extent of country some sixty miles to the southward of Deer Lodge but whether there are paying diggings throughout this entire region, has not yet been determined The prospecting thus far has been very limited

Lieut Mullan's Wagon Road Exploration were about completed, the last bridge on Hellgate river, and intended, as soon as this was finished, to proceed to Fort Benton

FORT POWDER RIVER.—The news from Powder river this week is rather more encouraging than has been brought in by the returning adventurers for a week Mr C H Barnett, expressman in between this place and Powder river, who came in on Saturday last informs us that since the first stampede in the mines affairs have assumed altogether a different phase in that locality Prospecting parties have found diggings and gone to work with every prospect of paying claims reward for their labor Before leaving Mr Barnett had a brief chat on matters with Mr Kirkpatrick and party—found the diggings and opened a claim in each gulch, on which they made, 1st day $20, 2d day $14—working only three or four hours the first day and about two the second Another claim had been opened on the same gulch, paying at about the same rate

Wells Fargo & Co's express brought down about $20,000 in dust.

The Mountaineer of yesterday says that a village of blacksmith shops, Dead Horse and all, had been started and brought to life by the discovery of one Young, or Indiana, or Indiana Young, or California Young, who, like Horace Greeley's wife, with whom he had been living for more than a year in the Dalles. The case was in the process of trial and had created almost endless surprise and gossip

About one hundred feet of Col Rockafellow's railroad at the Cascades, will have been completed by the 1st of June. The river was rising very fast and it was thought that the last drop in the upper Cascades

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City

DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, opposite the Post Office

A RUNAWAY.—A team of six horses got away from their driver down near the lower bridge yesterday afternoon, and ran with fearful speed up Front as far as Stark street, where they turned and took out towards the woods. Fortunately they were not attached to a vehicle, being loosed for the purpose of taking them up in the stable. No damage of serious character, only one drayman and horse getting run over on the corner of Front and Ash st reet, but not hurt

LOOSING GAME.—The keeper of the Penitentiary has lately 'dropped three and picked up one.' Three convicts came the "cheap John" over him last Sunday night, and made good their escape. One (the negro) has been heard from on the slough between Portland and Vancouver, but we do not know that search has been instituted for him or

A convict was safely (?) deposited in the Penitentiary yesterday, under sentence of three years imprisonment and hard labor from Coose County

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.—Mr P S Caffrey has authorized us to announce that he desires the nomination for School Superintendent on the Union ticket, in favor of J J Flowers, a good Union man, and fully competent for the position.

THE RIVER.—The bark Helen W Lovy, Capt Corning, from San Francisco arrived at the Columbia Bar and took pilot on Sunday May 25th, and crossed the bar on the 26th. She had a large cargo and twenty passengers

COUNCIL.—The City Council last night passed an Ordinance reducing the license of Auctioneers from $500 to $200 per year

RIVER RISING.—The Columbia river is reported to be some 3 inches higher at Vancouver than it was in the year 1859, which is the highest water that has been known for many years

VICTORIA ITEMS.—From the following extract from a letter to the assistant commissioner of the gold mining district of Cariboo, it will be seen that much suffering has been experienced by the miners in that region for want of provisions

LILLOOET, B C, May 2, 1862

* * About 400 men have up to the present time left this place for Cariboo, many poorer, and in all probability a greater number have started from Lytton. Not one single pack train has left either place, (most of the 2 or 3 trains are expected to leave Lytton tomorrow, having got their loads out of the snow from Yale) and those miners who have left, had, with very few exceptions, only enough provisions to take them up. The latter must have almost entirely exhausted the stock of provisions laid in above last fall. From the best information I can obtain, I believe that the roadside houses between Lillooet and Williams Lake could not muster five sacks of flour between them. I am sincerely at a loss to know what those miners intend to do who have gone up, and who fear a rush back, though they will be almost to the verge of starvation, on account of losing their claims. Added to all there are between three and four hundred Indians at this point only waiting to get a sack or two of flour per company to start, and with this much they will be able at present readily buy in dribblets. * * J P FLWIN

BANKRUPT.—W H Francis (doing business as late of Portland, Oregon, yesterday filed a petition in bankruptcy. His liabilities are stated at forty five thousand dollars, assets nil. Most of the liabilities were contracted in San Francisco

DALLES, May 27, 1862

EDITOR OREGONIAN

A little excitement now prevails in this place, consequent upon the apparent increase of water. The water is now fully up to the highest point attained during the summer of 1859, and is still rising at the rate of one inch per day. The merchants on Main street are hurriedly removing their goods with much haste to higher and more safe positions of the premises. Should this state of affairs continue much longer, the Dalles must sustain an immense loss of property

I have just conversed with Mr Miller, who has just arrived from Florence. He brings a large amount of gold dust mostly on account of Thomas & Co, for parties at Portland. Mr Miller informs me that the snow in and around Florence has nearly disappeared and that mining operations are going on quite briskly, and the prospects are equally as flattering as they were last fall. There are, however, hundreds, many returning disenchanted and pronouncing the mines a humbug. J L

Public Speaking.

THE BIRD IN THE STORM.

I

One dark evening in November,
I was listening to the rain,
And I very well remember
How it dashed against the pane
It did blow and beat and rattle,
Upon roof and tree and wall
And I felt for the poor cattle
Such as lodged without a stall

II

For I thought of beast and beggar
Wishing cloth a snug retreat
Thought of beads without a cover,
On which storms of trouble beat
Thought of little hearts unbidden,
And of tears without relief,
When those windows are unbolted
Through which childhood pours its grief

III

Then my thoughts were on the ocean,
Winds above and waves below
Where this sight of dread commotion,
Preludes many a tale of woe;
Yes, I thought of the poor sailor,
On the hopeless billows wrecked,
And I prayed the ocean's Ruler
He the sailor would protect

IV

While I mused, there came a rapping
On my window—then it passed
Then returned again a tapping
Longer, louder than the last
'Twas a little feathered stranger
Saw my quarters, light and warm,
And forgetting every danger
But the peltings of the storm.

V

On the glass did flap and flutter,
Just as if his thoughts had been,
Though the words he could not utter,
"You will surely take me in"
Quick I slipped the sash before him
In he flew a speedy guest,
Glad to find a shelter o'er him,
Though without his little nest

VI

Said I, "Birdie you are welcome,
You shall lodge with me to night,
And to-morrow have your freedom,
If the morrow's sky be bright."
But I could not make him loiter,
Nor appear to notice me
"First," said he, "I'll reconnoiter,"
Such a cautious bird was he.

VII.

Swift he mounted to the ceiling
Then he circled round and round,
Diving, soaring, darting, wheeling,
Till he dropped upon the ground—
So he thought, but 'twas the carpet,
Not the lawn from which he rose,
Said I, "Chirpie you are quiet,
Sit and warm your little toes"

VIII

And he did so; in a corner
Nestling, while I knelt to prayer,
Thinking God had sent him hither
To instruct me of his care.
Sure he heeds his children's sorrow,
And will hear their humble words,
When he notices the sparrow,
And takes care of little birds.

IX

Soon the calm, bright Sabbath morning
O'er the earth serenity shone;
Early to the fields returning,
Had the little stranger flown.
While that day in many a temple,
Men did praise the only God,
Was there not a hymn more simple
Heard in Heaven from yonder wood?

The Grouse of Oregon.

Dr. George Suckley, in his Natural History of Washington Territory, favors the idea that the grouse hibernates in the tops of dense fir trees in winter. We have heard and seen no other statement confirming this theory He says—

"Concerning the whereabouts of this bird during the winter months, there are many opinions among the settlers Some maintain that the species is migratory, and that they retire to the South, while others say that they repair to the tops of the highest evergreen trees, where, in the thickest foliage of the branches, they pass the cold season in a state of semi-torpor, rarely or never descending until the warm weather comes on. As they subsist well on the leaves of the coniferæ, and can always obtain sufficient water from the snow and rain drops on the leaves to supply their necessities, I have but little doubt that this latter is the correct account, or that if migratory, but partially so I saw one bird of this species on the ground during a fall of snow, in January, 1854, near the Nisqually River, in Washington Territory; and I have been told that a man, near Olympia, Washington Territory, whose eye-sight is excellent, is able any day during winter to obtain several birds by searching carefully for them in the tree tops of the tallest and most thickly leaved firs This requires eyesight of much greater power than most men possess. Even, in summer, when these birds are generally lower in the trees, it is hard to find them among the dense branches They have, in addition to their sombre hues, the advantage of habit, of crowding very closely to the limbs, and of sitting almost immovable for hours"

The Olympia Standard is anxious to obtain a sight of the "sharp shooter" to whom the doctor refers.

MAIDENHOOD AND MOTHERHOOD — There is no higher gift, no higher tie, than that conferred on motherhood But next to that, in sacredness and beauty, is the devotion of a daughter to her parents Putting far away all other ties and bonds of love, and being absorbed entirely in filial duties

The other children having all left home, returning only at intervals from households of their own, to cheer but for an hour, day or week, the declining years of their parents, engrossed all the while so in the accumulation of wealth, the education of their children, or settling them in business of an active life, how little deep affection, of true feeling of heartfelt love, during their short stay beneath the parental roof, is showered upon father and mother, compared to that constant overflowing of anxious solicitude on the part of the maiden daughter, whose home is ever with them, who has no other cares but solicitude for their happiness, and no other duty but to serve them How beautiful, holy and happy such maidenhood!

If Motherhood is the highest social office, as it is and ever must be, then maidenhood must claim the next highest prerogative She who assiduously lessens the household cares of her mother's declining years, ministers to her infirmities and cheers her pathway to the skies performs a high and holy duty, and great is her reward —Boston Cultivator.

A PLEASANT CHOICE —A M Feuillet was traveling in a steamboat at the time when an explosion took place M Feuillet was transfixed by an iron spit 7 feet long—the spit went in at the abdomen and passed out at the back, so that there was 3 feet of the spit in front and 3 feet of the spit behind M Feuillet was conveyed to the nearest hotel. His position required all the resources of art, a surgeon was accordingly sent for, who on arriving felt the patient's pulse and asked him where he was suffering

'In the abdomen," replied the wounded man

'Indeed! how did it happen to you?"

The patient thereupon detailed the sad accident of his being transfixed

The surgeon shook his head and resumed

"Are they subject to this accident, sir, in your family?"

"No," replied the patient, "not that I know—my father and mother are very old people and have never been spitted: so with regard to my brothers and sisters, and my uncles and aunts"

"Very well, sir, I require that information in order to give a correct prognosis You experience I suppose considerable difficulty in lying on your back?"

"Yes, sir, it is indeed impossible"

"It is not any easier for you to lie on your stomach?"

"I experience precisely the same difficulty"

"It must, therefore, be much easier for you to lie on your side"

"That is the only position I can lie in"

"That will suffice, sir It only remains to determine upon the treatment Here the indications are very precise either we can leave the spit but then you will most likely die of inflammation, or we can extract it, but then it is not probable that you will survive the operation. Science, sir, has its limits, your fate is in your own hands—you must decide for either one treatment or the other."—The Ills of Paris

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws

To the Afflicted

Shrink not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse Sexual Incapacity, Syphilis in all its stages Stricture Gleet, Gravel Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder Mercurial Rheumatism Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs Cancers Piles, Hepatic Life, St Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervousness Trembling Loss of Memory Loss of Power General Weakness Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes Loss of Sight, Wakefulness Dyspepsia Liver Disease Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes No matter from what cause the disease originated however long standing or obstinate the cure recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure The medicines prescribed are pleasant without bitter entirely vegetable causing no sickness and free from mercury or mineral. During fifteen years of practice in Europe the Atlantic States and California I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians which warrants me in pledging to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases that are a terror to the human family A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution filling the system with mercury which, with the poison lurking in the system will in many cases cause death speedily and the victim marries he diseased unconscious of the ruin he has entailed upon the children who may be born with the constitutions and the current of life corrupted by mercury which in many cases will show itself in running sores ulceration and other affections of the throat eyes throat and lungs, entailing misery on the unfortunate existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave

Self abuse is another fruitful enemy to health, for nothing else in the list of complaints is more diseases caused and sometimes through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave It destroys the nervous system rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement prevents the proper development of the system disqualifies for marriage renders unhappiness, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, rendering consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the alarming amount of ruin in private places, my patients can be restored to perfect health

Impostors, who publish diseases of males and females treat on principles established by fifteen years of practice and speedily restore the most inveterate cases—Applications, with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease who having received their first health and implicit confidence in the skill of the physician whose name they have made known their cases and remedial agents and their statement are authenticated by many living witnesses who can vouch for the truth of the statements and whose names command their publicity and we commend their appeal to the attention of all afflicted

Card to the—The undersigned desirous of acquainting those who may be afflicted with such diseases as he has been similarly afflicted with, a permanent relief from their sufferings may be obtained It is therefore to fulfil a duty he owes to himself and fellow sufferers gratitude to the Dr Czapkay, for the almost miraculous restoration to health and happiness he has given him after many years of misery and to desire that this knowledge of his unfortunate condition may be the means of leading others to apply to the Dr for relief and thereby be restored to health and happiness even the most afflicting early indiscretion and the consequent destruction of the nervous system with all its direful train of evils and miseries which are the inevitable consequence of such indulgence will be thoroughly eradicated by the use of the Doctor's remedies and the patient restored to perfect manhood Dr Czapkay's remedies are purely vegetable and contain no mercury or other mineral substance which is destructive to the constitution and ruinous to health Dr Czapkay's remedies are the result of many years of practice and study and are offered to the public with the full confidence that they will do all that is claimed for them Dr Czapkay's remedies are purely vegetable and contain no mercury or other mineral substance which is destructive to the constitution and ruinous to health Dr Czapkay's remedies are the result of many years of practice and study and are offered to the public with the full confidence that they will do all that is claimed for them

Dr L J Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have taken the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall require more as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the blessing of God. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I commenced your institute with my constitution, as I was then told, entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and invigorate my nerves so that I would not get excited and worry about everything Now that you know what I have acknowledge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from all symptoms and the removal of those sores and eruptions from my skin and the ulcers from my throat, and the running sores on the pages of those unfortunate, which you said were the principal cause of my sickness I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except a little weakness I have got my strength I feel as well as any man can do

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your fee, as I think myself cheaply cured If you think it sufficient to be benefited you may put this letter in the newspapers and oblige your juvenile gratefully yours, THOMAS

Thankfulness is the incentive!

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest feeling of gratitude I wish to lay before the public a case which I have under the recommendation, not only as an act of scientific skill to the humanity also About two years ago, I was attacked with a disease unknown to me, was seized with a violent pain in the head which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the management which I met with on attempting it from some physicians (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician I was frequently, while in pursuit of my business thrown down to the ground without the power of rising and although insensible to the agonies, I was a prey to the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon death as a friend would render assistance or shelter me from the storm I sought to prolong the existence of my miserable life While in this state, and having, previous to my attack tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to seek aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, I applied to Dr L J Czapkay I told him of my disease and of my inability to reward him for his services, the greatest of which, however he at once undertook by the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health I said he to reward him for the boon which he had conferred at present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I would remain in his debt due to myself and all afflicted, to make the same known in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed
